NOTE VERBALE DATED 21 APRIL 1992 FROM THE PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF NICARAGUA TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

The Permanent Representative of Nicaragua to the United Nations presents his compliments to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and wishes to refer to resolution 733 (1992) adopted by the Security Council on 23 January 1992, concerning the situation in Somalia.

In that connection, the Permanent Representative of Nicaragua wishes to inform the Secretary-General that the Government of Nicaragua, in keeping with its policy on disarmament, national reconciliation and the peaceful settlement of disputes, fully supports the provisions of the resolution, and hopes that the hostilities will soon cease and that a process of reconciliation and political normalization will be promoted in Somalia.
